CAGPO Mission Statement

- Unify General Practitioners in Oncology;
- Promote communication amongst General Practitioners in Oncology in tertiary care and primary care settings;
- Act and speak as the recognized authority on behalf of and for the benefit of General Practitioners in Oncology and their interests;
- Promote the role of General Practitioners in Oncology within Cancer Centers, and within the primary care setting.

Support and encourage the development of educational opportunities for Family Physicians/General Practitioners wishing to obtain additional training in Oncology.

Sponsorship Benefits

In order to assist you in your sponsorship decision-making, we have outlined below the benefits and monetary assignments of each level of sponsorship. Sponsorships received will be in the form of an educational grant made payable to CAGPO-ACMOO, and received at least 3 months prior to the event.
